

Contract - for student room

The undersigned has rented a room in Jan-Olof Sandgren's apartment on Hjällibogärdet 36, and accept following rules:

- To pay rent in advance, before the end of every calendar month.
- Respect all rules for the apartment and for the neighbourhood. For example: reducing volume of music after kl. 22. No skyping and phonecalls after midnight. Keeping kitchen and bathroom tidy.
- Assist in cleaning all shared areas, and make a final good clean of the room before leaving.
- Don't use electric devices or connections that's not safe, according to Swedish standard.
- Take all precautions needed to avoid spreading of bedbugs and other vermins. And in case of such problems, assist in sanitating the apartment.
- Take good care of Jan-Olof Sandgren's property, and pay every damage that may occur.
- Take good care of the trusted key – not giving it to anybody else, not copy it without permission and returning it when moving out. If key is lost, or not taken care of properly, the lodger will be responsible for all costs involved in changing lock and making new keys.
- This contract has one month notice, for both parts. During that time the room may be shown to other lodgers. The notice period is counted from the next turn of the month.
- Visits of friends are generally allowed, as long as the lodger take full responsibility. For overnight guests the landlord has to be consulted.
- This contract is valid six months after being signed.
